

HIGHLAND LAKES LEGAL CENTER

Thank you for your interest in obtaining services from the Highland Lakes Legal Center (HLLC).

The fee for your services will be based on your income level. For this reason, it is important that you fill out the Application for Reduced Cost Legal Services completely and accurately, for yourself or the prospective client, so that we may be of assistance to the best of our abilities. Upon submitting the Application for Reduced Legal Services, we ask that you provide supporting documentation regarding your income and any government assistance that you receive.

If you qualify for our services, the Director of HLLC and your assigned attorney will assist you through the process of your case. Depending on your specific needs and desires, there may be a variety of ways that we can help you resolve your legal matter. At HLLC, we follow a model of holistic representation. This means that we are committed to providing thoughtful, innovative, and well-rounded solutions to your legal problems. We understand that this may result in an additional time commitment or cost to you, and in exchange for your added efforts, HLLC will work to further reduce your overall legal fees. We look forward to the possibility of working with you!
